Many of the best business opportunities surface by word of mouth or you can check the bulletin—and are snapped up before their owners ever list them for sale. Other avenues to explore include newspaper or online ads, trade associations, real estate brokers, and business suppliers. Finally, there are business brokers—people who earn a commission from business owners who need help finding buyers. It's fine to use a broker to help locate a business opportunity, but it's foolish to rely on a broker—who doesn't make a commission until a sale is made—for advice about the quality of a business or the fairness of its selling price.
