Factors to Consider When Choosing a State

When determining the best state to open a small business, several critical factors come into play. Understanding these factors can significantly influence your decision-making process and the success of your venture.

Workforce Availability

The availability of a skilled and educated workforce is crucial for the success of a small business. States that invest in education and training programs often have a higher quality labor pool, which can lead to better employee performance and lower turnover rates.

Access to Funding and Resources

Access to funding is essential for small businesses, especially in the early stages. States with strong networks of investors, small business loans, and grants can provide crucial financial support. best state to open a small business: The Broken Spoke Donna Marie Miller, 2017-04-21 James and Annetta White opened the Broken Spoke in 1964, then a mile south of the Austin city limits, under a massive live oak, and beside what would eventually become South Lamar Boulevard. White built the place himself, beginning construction on the day he received his honorable discharge from the US Army. And for more than fifty years, the Broken Spoke has served up, in the words of White's well-worn opening speech, "... cold beer, good whiskey, the best chicken fried steak in town ... and good country music." White paid thirty-two dollars to his first opening act, D. G. Burrow and the Western Melodies, back in 1964. Since then, the stage at the Spoke has hosted the likes of Bob Wills, Dolly Parton, Ernest Tubb, Ray Price, Marcia Ball, Pauline Reese, Roy Acuff, Kris Kristofferson, George Strait, Willie Nelson, Jerry Jeff Walker, Asleep at the Wheel, and the late, great Kitty Wells. But it hasn't always been easy; through the years, the Whites and the Spoke have withstood their share of hardship—a breast cancer diagnosis, heart trouble, the building's leaky roof, and a tour bus driven through its back wall. Today the original rustic, barn-style building, surrounded by sleek, high-rise apartment buildings, still sits on South Lamar, a tribute and remembrance to an Austin that has almost vanished. Housing fifty years of country music memorabilia and about a thousand lifetimes of memories at the Broken Spoke, the Whites still honor a promise made to Ernest Tubb years ago: they're "keepin' it country."
