copa 737 business class: The Airline Revolution Gordon Mills, 2016-07-15 When starting new airlines in response to government deregulation, entrepreneurs in the U.S. and Europe reduced some traditional service qualities (to reduce costs), concentrated on non-stop services between city pairs not already so connected, improved on-time performance, and offered low fares to win leisure travelers from the incumbents and to encourage more travel. In recent developments, some of the new airlines have offered optional extras (at higher fares) to attract business travelers and entered major routes alongside the legacy carriers. Within both the U.S. and Europe, deregulation removed most geographical barriers to expansion by short-haul airlines. Later, limited deregulation spread to other world regions, where many short-haul routes connect city pairs in different countries, and where governments have retained traditional two-country mechanisms restricting who may fly. To gain access to domestic routes in other countries, some new airlines are setting up affiliate companies in neighboring countries, with each company legally controlled in the country of domicile. With air travel growing strongly, especially in Asia, a common result is intense, but potentially short-lived, competition on major routes. The recent developments give clear signposts to likely mid-term outcomes, and make this an opportune time to report on the new-airline scene. The Airline Revolution will provide valuable economic analysis of this climate to students, airline professionals advancing to senior positions, public servants and others who provide advice to governments.

Desde os anos 1980 eu aguardo com ansiedade a chegada da edição especial da Flap que retrata, de forma abrangente, a aviação comercial. Este verdadeiro anuário é item de colecionador. Conheço muita gente que tem em suas bibliotecas a coleção completa dessas edições. Nunca imaginei que um dia, além de colaborar na execução desses registros anuais e históricos do setor como fiz em várias edições anteriores, teria a responsabilidade de publicar a revista e carregar o peso de garantir a precisão e a qualidade desta edição em particular. Mas, é claro, ninguém faz nada sozinho. E como piloto dessa grande aeronave chamada Flap Internacional, eu tenho uma tripulação de Primeira Classe. No time editorial, Flávio Marcos de Souza, Rodrigo Cozzato, Paulo Marques e agora nosso querido Lineu Carneiro Saraiva, convidado especialmente trazido para escrever esta edição, fizeram o trabalho com dedicação, precisão histórica e infatigável esforço para cruzar dados, fatos e informações.
