echo business portal: The new online trade Gerrit Heinemann, 2023-03-30 This book presents developments and future trends in e-commerce, which is shaped by customers' new digital communication and consumption patterns. Gerrit Heinemann sheds light on e-commerce business models, channel excellence as well as success factors such as digital time advantages and customer centricity. He analyzes the digital challenges and highlights the consequences and opportunities associated with online commerce. Recognized best practices illustrate how successful digital commerce works and what the lessons learned of the past years are. The 13th edition describes which new approaches will shape the future of online retail and which developments will remain long-term issues. While, for example, app and smartphone commerce, including mobile payment, continue to be long-running issues, the environmental issue is coming at online commerce with a concentrated charge. This means that people's growing need for more sustainability and consideration for the environment has now also arrived in e-commerce. This work is therefore devoted to sustainable e-commerce in the context of online logistics, which runs counter to the new trend towards quick commerce. The topics of climate neutrality and returns management are also increasingly coming into focus. In addition, current topics such as the marketplace theme and social commerce will be explored in greater depth. Furthermore, numerous new legal requirements are taken into account, which place increased obligations on marketplace operators in particular. The content - Meta-targeting and business ideas in online retailing - Business model of online trade - Forms of online trade - Business systems and benchmarks in e-commerce - Best practices and risks in online retailing echo business portal: Just ›A Machine for Doing Business‹? Katja Schönián, 2022-06-07 How is a new intranet involved in an ongoing merger integration process? Katja Schönián analyses internal communication and branding strategies in connection with the implementation of a new company intranet. Based on qualitative data, the study contrasts managerial expectations and everyday usage of the intranet in distinct work settings. Relying on social practice theories and research in Science & Technology Studies, Katja Schönián unpacks the different logics the intranet brings together and, furthermore, interrogates the characteristics that make an (un)workable technology. The book sheds light on the informal practices and politics surrounding the technology implementation process. It provides readers with new insights into the dynamics of a merger integration process, the production of worker subjectivity, and the increasing involvement of technologies in contemporary knowledge work.

echo business portal: Corruption in Latin America Robert I. Rotberg, 2018-10-19 This book is the newest and one of the very few existing examinations of the full nature of corruption throughout Central and South America. In detailed chapters written by experts with extensive in-country experience, it reveals the political and economic roots and consequences of corruption in Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, and Peru. The editor's introduction and conclusion texts synthesize their work and provides an over-arching view of corrupt practices and anti-corruption initiatives throughout Latin America. Corruption in Latin America shows the extent to which corrupt practices engulf each of the countries discussed, the involvement of political and corporate entities in the pursuit of ill-gotten gains, and the drag on development caused by corruption in each political entity. The book will be of interest for social scientists, political actors and social activists involved in the fight against corruption in Latin America byproviding in-depth analyses of the topic and discussing how best to pursue anti-corruption efforts through civil society actions, judicial endeavors, legal shifts, or elections.

echo business portal: Iron Bound: The Complete Series Z.J. Cannon, 2023-01-27 Five books in one! Kieran Thorne is the world's only living half-fae—sentenced to death by his father's Court, mistrusted and reviled by humanity, and cursed with the uncontrollable impulse to help those in need. He thought he had kicked the altruism habit. But now a Winter fae as alluring as she is violent needs him to track down Queen Mab's missing spies. He can't say no—and not just because of the knife at his throat. He's about to be drawn into a twisted conspiracy that begins with a human tech company and may end with the destruction of Earth and Faerie alike... and will force him to confront the truth about his heritage along the way. This digital bundle contains the complete Iron Bound series: No Promises, No Illusions, No Sanctuary, No Escape, and No Heroes. 2000 pages of dark urban fantasy suspense!

echo business portal: No Promises Z.J. Cannon, 2021-09-03 I used to be a hero. Then I grew up. I'm Kieran Thorne, the world's only living half-fae. The gig comes with a few perks—immortality, magic I can't control, fae assassins constantly on my heels. And the chance to protect the good and the powerless against those who are neither. For hundreds of years, that's what I did. Until I got tired of the humans I saved repaying me by burning me at the stake or shooting me in the heart. I traded in my white hat for a mansion on the beach, and started living by a new creed: look out for myself, and let the humans solve their own problems. But now Winter fae are going missing, and someone has planted a trail of evidence leading right to my door. I have two choices: let Queen Mab's feral enforcer carve me to bits, or help her find the real culprit. Looks like I'm back in the hero business. But this time, I'll remember the lesson it cost me so much to learn: There are no good people in this world, and no righteous causes. Humanity is corrupt. The fae are cruel and vicious. Me? I'm a little of both.
