han she business hotel taipei: The Missing Girls and Women of China, Hong Kong and Taiwan Hua-Lun Huang, 2014-01-10 In the past century, tens of millions of women and girls have disappeared in China, Hong Kong, and Taiwan. There are many reasons: the women variously were sold as foreign spouses; imprisoned for their political beliefs; taken to night clubs or massage parlors to work as escorts; provided as comfort women to soldiers; or murdered by female corpse dealers and sold as ghost brides to families looking to give their deceased sons wives in the afterlife. The youngest girls fell victim to infanticide, the tragic result of a one child law in a male-dominated society. As a result of the gender imbalance these disappearances created, countless young males now suffer from the marriage squeeze, remaining single without families of their own. This sociological study explores the institutional factors, develops a typology for these populations, and lays a foundation for the examination of lost populations in the future.

han she business hotel taipei: Where are the people? People's Theater in Inter-Asian Societies Ratu Selvi Agnesia, Glecy Cruz ATIENZA, AU Sow Yee, BAEK Dae-hyun, Richard BARBER, Assane Alberto CASSIMO, CHUNG Chiao, Dindon W.S., Muhammad FEBRIANSYAH, HAN Jia-ling, HONG Seung-yi, Hsiao-Chuan HSIA, KUO Liang-ting, LEE Show Shin, LIU Hsin-hung, Adaw Palaf LANGASAN, WANG Chu-yu, WANG Mo-lin, Robin WEICHERT, WU Sih-Fong, ZHAO Chuana, Where Are the People? How Could the People's Bodies Voice Themselves in the Form of Theatrical Aesthetics? At That Time, the Audience Really Stood Up. In this evening, theater practitioners initiated the conversation with physical action. They engage with contemporary issues through their unique performance styles. From a discursive context, they enter the scene of resistance and undertake the labor of performance. Their performance is not just the preface to a series of dialogues, but also a witness to thirty years of People's Theater. "People's theater" belongs to the people. It is the theater created by the people and speaks for the people as it has appeared in history in diverse forms. People theater in Inter-Asian Societies began to grow in a cross-region, which included Jakarta, Manila, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur, Hong Kong, Tokyo, Busan, Maputo, Beijing, Shanghai, Hualien, Taichung, and Taipei. Through the writings and images written down by theatrical artists from these spaces, we can figure out the body aesthetics that carry historical conflicts and the experience to find the form and channel of expression, and continue for work of thinking and creation. "People Theater" is nothing but a rehearsal for a revolution. This book has reviewed and reflected on the half-century development of people's theater in inter-Asian societies, demonstrates how the theatrical practitioners and artists in different communities strived to open various spaces, dealt with the censorship from the authoritarian regime to the neoliberal societies, and experimented with diverse aesthetics and local objects to address political issues. ■ Preface "It is a collection with the premise that can motivate our critical thinking with bodily energy. It reflects how we realize the statement—'Viewing as participating; audience as actors.' It is also a book where some keywords constantly appear, like resistance, politics, the oppressed, and conversation. With its humming buzz and murmur against the present situation, it is a collection of words refusing to remain silent." — Lin Hsin I □ Associate Professor at the Institute of Applied Art, National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University □ ■ People's Theater Practitioners Asian People's Theatre Festival Society (Hong Kong) □ Assignment Theatre (Taiwan) □ Centre for Applied Theatre, Taiwan (Taipei) □ Grass Stage (Shanghai) □ Langasan Theatre (Hualien) □ Makhampom Theatre Group (Ching Dao/Bangkok) □ Oz Theatre Company (Taipei) □ Philippine Educational Theater Association, PETA (Manila) □ Shigang Mama Theater (Taichung Shigang) □ Teater Kubur (Jakarta) □ Teatro em Casa (Mozambique) □ Theater Playground SHIIM (Busan) □ Trans-Asia Sisters Theater (Taiwan) □ WANG Mo-lin (Taiwan) □ Wiji Thukul (Solo) □ Yasen no Tsuki (Tokyo) ■ Characteristics of this book 1. Beyond the geographical limitations of Taiwan and East Asia, combined the context of Inter-Asian societies and Third-World society, appreciate the theater work methods that are intertwined with folk culture and community traditions, and promote the practice of public theater. 2. This book focuses on depicting network relationships in specific historical periods, and explores how the cooperation and interaction of troupes in these heterogeneous regions occurred. And how do these interactions affect the characteristics and forms of popular theater organizations in the transition of different policies? 3. What this book looks back on is not only the continuation and development of troupes but also the sudden change or gap between new people theaters and old people theaters.

han she business hotel taipei: The Branding of MTV Paul Temporal, 2008-06-09 There have been few brands that have made such a massive impact on the world stage in such a relatively short time-frame as MTV. It is a household name and virtually all young people, regardless of whether they have access to television, have heard of it. It is a name associated with youth and music and all areas in which the two are involved. It has dominated the market space in the category of music television since its inception and looks like it will continue to do so in the foreseeable future. This book is not so much a tribute to MTV, although it deserves as much, but an analysis of how the MTV brand has been built. Global brands do not just arrive by accident - they are carefully and strategically built to match the needs of their target markets. They evolve with those target markets as lifestyles, wants, needs, attitudes, opinions, interests, and many other factors come and go. In addition, global brands successfully manage the differences across countries and cultures. MTV has managed to do all of these things with startling consistency, another attribute of great brands that stand the test of time. What is more intriguing is that it has done all this in one of the most turbulent times ever experienced in consumer markets, particularly in Asia, where change is endemic.

han she business hotel taipei: A Mission under Duress Suping Lu, 2012-07-10 Immediately after capturing the Chinese capital, Nanjing, on December 13, 1937, Japanese soldiers committed atrocities such as mass executions, rampant rapes, arson, and looting in and around the city. The carnage went on for weeks. On January 6, 1938, after the worst of the massacre atrocities was over, three American diplomats arrived in Nanjing. Upon their arrival, Third Secretary John Moore Allison, Vice Consul James Espy, and Code Clerk Archibald Alexander McFadyen, Jr. cabled dispatches about the atrocities and other conditions in the city to the Department of State and other U.S. diplomatic posts in China. Often, they dispatched several reports within a day. These atrocity reports, which were largely based on interviews with American missionaries and their own investigations, gave detailed descriptions of Japanese atrocities, property damage, social conditions, relief efforts, diplomatic wrestling, and many other aspects of life in the city during and after the massacre period. The value of these diplomatic dispatches and reports, which were retrieved from the national archives, rests on that they extensively document the American diplomats' role, their observations and attitude toward the situation there, their efforts to help the Chinese and protect the Americans, and their struggles with the Japanese.
