Welch, Randy Cross, Susan Groseclose, 2022-01-18 Daily Bible Study is a great companion to the quarterly Adult Bible Studies or as a stand-alone study. It is presented in quarterly segments. Bible-based, and Christ-focused, it coordinates with the lesson themes of Adult Bible Studies. Each daily reading includes a one-page Bible study for each day of the quarter, along with introductory reflection questions and commentary on the daily Scripture passage, life application, and a concluding prayer. Daily Bible Study Spring 2022 Theme: Follow The lessons this quarter are confined to two units so that we can observe the season of Lent. Authentic discipleship involves imitating Jesus, and we must begin with an understanding of Jesus as Messiah and the kingdom to which he invites us to belong. We soon discover as we follow Jesus that his kingdom turns our expectations totally upside down. As we walk with Jesus, we must admit that we sometimes totally miss the mark. Yet Christ forgives us, restores us, and equips us to live into our identities as Christ-followers. As his followers, we have responsibilities and opportunities to help grow the kingdom. One way is through stewardship, a concept that is much broader than we may think. Our role involves using not only our physical resources but indeed our very lives as grace-filled cohabitants in God's marvelous creation. Unit 1: The Mark You Make Discipleship in Mark's Gospel is often described as the way of the cross because of the repeated emphasis upon following Jesus on the way to Jerusalem and the command to take up one's cross and follow Jesus (Mark 8:34). In this season when we commemorate Jesus' journey to Jerusalem, we give our attention to various aspects of discipleship we find in Mark's Gospel.

Scriptures: Mark 8:27-38; Mark 9:38-50; Mark 10:35-45; Mark 11:12-14, 20-25; Mark 13:5-8, 28-37; Mark 14: 27-42; Mark 16:1-8 Spiritual Practice: Reflection and self-examination Unit 2: The Steps You Take Creation care has become a prominent topic of discussion in Christian congregations and seminaries during the last couple of decades. While disagreement exists about human responsibility for climate change and to what extent we should limit human activity for the purpose of preservation of endangered species and habitats, Scripture makes clear that God takes pleasure in creation and that our role as stewards requires that we appreciate creation and take our responsibility as stewards seriously. Scriptures: Psalm 104; Leviticus 25:1-13; Deuteronomy 14:22-29; Job 38:4-11; Joel 2:18-26; Romans 8:19-22; 2 Corinthians 9 Spiritual Practice: Nurture and care of all creation daily bible study: Give Us This Day Charles Erlandson, 2011-08 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina. Lectio divina, or divine reading, is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind. Rather than writing a short devotional about a particular verse from a passage, Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts; rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about, Fr. Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament. At the end of each day's devotional, an appropriate Prayer is offered, as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson. Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading, meditation, and prayer. Matthew is the first volume of an eight-volume series that will provide daily devotionals for every passage in the New Testament.

daily bible study: 120-Day Bible Study Journal -- My Scriptural Journey Triune Press, 2018-11-22 The 120-Day Bible Study Journal is designed to help you gain more from your daily Bible study. Use it as part of your daily devotional or as a notebook to record your thoughts on scripture passages your Bible study group is focusing on. This journal is also an excellent tool to help you grow in your relationship with God, and to help you increase your faith in his providence. Each page provides you with space to note the Scripture verse you are studying, which will aid your memorization of the verse. You also have space to note your thoughts and reflections on the passage, and to write down how you believe its teaching applies to your life. Each page concludes with space to write down your prayers and praise as it applies to each day's study. The journal actually contains enough pages for 123 days of Bible study. Why 123 days? Simple. Taken together, all three of our journals in this series have a combined total of 369 pages. That's enough for an entire year of study, including leap years (plus 3-4 extra days). Thus, each journal can hold four(!) full months of Bible studies. What advantage is there in that? Well, if you limit each journal to exactly four months, they will help keep your Bible studies organized. And if you're not that faithful with your daily Bible study or you're not that organized? No problem. Then you get to enjoy a journal with plenty of pages, and that's always a good thing, right? At the back of the journal are several pages set aside for Answers to Prayers, Notes, Etc. They're there for whatever you like: Use them to document God's answers to your prayers. Use them for extra space when the page for your current study isn't enough. Use them for study notes. Use them as a short diary. Or anything else. These will all help you strengthen your belief in God's faithfulness by documenting the presence of His loving hand in your life. Details about each 150-page journal: 123 pages for Bible study. 18 pages for Answers to Prayers, Notes, Etc. Premium matte cover design. Sized at 8 x 10 for ease of use.
