corrie ten boom quotes: Quotes That Will Inspire and Encourage You In Your Journey Tony Eason, 2022-01-15 God-inspired quotes. It's hard to imagine how God works in our lives at times, but I trust that He knows what He is doing and that He has my best interests. I was inspired by God to write by reading other authors' quotes such as Max Lucado, C. S. Lewis, A. W. Tozer, John Maxwell, Charles Stanley, Warren Wiersbe, Charles Swindoll, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Corrie ten Boom, etc. I was unsure how God was leading me, and there were times I wanted to throw in the towel, but He kept telling me to write. So I honored His voice. In the moments of uncertainty, I prayed. We can make our plans, but the Lord determines our steps. (Proverbs 16:9 NLT) corrie ten boom quotes: Quotes and Scripture on Prayer Rachel Baalessanvu, 2017-11-30 In this book, I have put together quotes on prayer that I relate to my own journey of prayer including learning how to pray. When I read them, they remind me of the vastness of the character of God and the uniqueness of the relationship we each have with Him. As a child of God, you can hone in on this special privilege of relating with the beauty of a loving Father; a Father who comes to us, reveals himself to us, lets us in on His heart and allows us to partner with him. We do this in prayer. As you start on or continue on a journey of prayer, may the experience of others in prayer be a glimpse into the greatness you are going to experience on your own journey. The icing on the cake are the scriptures from the Bible on the subject of prayer. Prayer was God's idea allowing the beauty and splendor of heaven to touch earth. Come and dine. God is expecting you.

corrie ten boom quotes: Politically Correct Moral Autonomy: Christianity Besieged! Stirring the Melting Pot to a Boil Ferd Wagner, 2022-06-15 On what basis should we accept or reject political or social philosophies that insist human nature, human wisdom and human cooperation have the potential to resolve our issues and problems if we buy into the morality espoused by liberal politics and liberal resolutions? Should we side with progressives who see most people as good, free to self-determine their own standards and will do the right thing if given the opportunity? Or with the right political and social contracts proposed by the “correct” party who see the morality of the liberal government as our correct way of achieving peace and prosperity? Should Christians have a place at the table? The challenge here and in all such debates is what constitutes acceptable moral standards and practices that accurately represent the will of the majority without denying the legal, social and moral rights of the minority? Then the question becomes how to correctly implement those standards. Here, each side should be challenged to present evidence and facts that either refute or prove the posited solutions or reforms can be validated by an acceptable objective authority or unbiased source. At this point, the debate demands proof or corroboration that the authorities being identified are trustworthy and beyond reproach. Is the authority a person, institution, document or charismatic leader and speaker? What evidence or past experiences corroborate their integrity and wisdom in dealing with the issue at hand? If you combine or spread the authority from the four different entities listed above, are you more likely to get subjective solutions based on human nature and human experience or divine solutions based on Christian theology and practice? One standard will insist that merit, integrity, honor and personal accountability is the better way to create more ethical and harmonious relationships while the other looks more towards fairness, inclusion and equality as the keys to harmony and prosperity. Here is where the rubber hits the road. Can any human, political party or institution claim superiority over all other authorities? If so, which one? In our system of government, a president and in most situations, his political party rules the roost for four years. Often, they dramatically change the moral and ethical atmosphere, refuting the direction of the preceding administration. Our checks and balances are primarily politically manipulated by the party in power and frequently are more rigged than balanced. Should our system be predicated on scriptural truth whose default is ethical accountability across the board or continue down the path where what is politically pragmatic and pluralistic enough to maintain control and power is the default? Political correctness cannot please all the people all the time. Nothing can. Which groups then should get priority; the ethical, accountable, sacrificial individuals and organizations, or the self-serving, you owe me, I deserve it groups who feel entitled to special privileges or rights? Meritocracy or hypocrisy? God’s ethics or man’s identity politics’ morality?

corrie ten boom quotes: Discerning & Understanding God's Will for Your Life Osbourne Murray, 2017-02-13 The book is about the importance of knowing God's will for one's life, which is paramount in having a harmonious and fulfilling relationship with God. When there's uncertainty concerning the will of God in any aspect of one's existence, it results to confusion and anxiety. Too many Christians go through life and never realize God's perfect will during their sojourn in time. In doing so, believers are robbed of the privilege of experiencing God's best for their lives. It also deprives them of having an overcoming, fruitful, spirit-filled, joyful, and peaceful life. Not discerning God's perfect will for your life will cause you to live far below your rights and privileges in Christ. The recognition of God's purpose for your life will provide a sense of identity, belongingness, vocation, and guidance, which serves to connect you to a higher purpose—the Kingdom of God. The truth is that not much attention is paid to this very critical area of Christianity today. However, it is the very heart of efficient and authentic Christian living. Without a clear understanding of God's will in one's life, one may feel like or even become a square peg in a round hole, especially as it pertains to identifying the appropriate ministries and where to serve effectively in the body of Christ.

corrie ten boom quotes: A Double Portion Margie O'Connor, 2021-01-15 Women all over the world are feeling the call to awaken, to tap into their God-given creative powers. Any religion that would silence that call is just too small for the life that is emerging. A Double Portion speaks to the realization of the Divine Feminine as experienced by a group of sisters who have followed an ancient call and gather around Brigid, a fifth-century historical figure considered both Goddess and Saint. This work of visionary fiction follows the path of each sister as she tends to the flames of justice, offering a way forward for all who are seeking to dismantle unjust patriarchal ways. Warmed by Brigid's flame, the reader will be forever challenged to include those left out, devalued, deemed invisible, or moved to the margins. Around the world, women are arising who refuse to be silenced by the patriarchy and clericalism that have denied women their rightful place in church and society. A Double Portion insists all will be provided for and offered a double portion under the mantle of Brigid. Smart, clever, funny, and just, A Double Portion is for women and men who know the power of building collaborative relationships that call on each individual's giftedness. In times of uncertainty, existing inequalities must be amplified, and everyone must speak up despite their fear. This novel provides a clear and powerful feminist vision of empowerment for all.
