It is administered by the Georgia Department of Driver Services (DDS) and is usually taken at a DDS Customer Service Center. The test consists of multiple-choice questions designed to evaluate an applicant's understanding of essential driving rules and regulations.

Applicants must be at least 15 years old to apply for a learner's permit in Georgia. Passing the permit test is the first step toward obtaining a full driver's license, allowing new drivers to practice driving under supervision. The test's format and content are based on the Georgia Driver's Manual, which serves as the primary study resource for applicants.
