guideposts magazine daily reading: Stories from the Golden Throne Darrell Berkheimer, 2009-04-03 This book deals with a wide range of subjects in more than 70 short selections that can be read in a few minutes. The subjects range from serious to sensitive, to humorous, compassionate and political. Many stories are both compelling and refreshing, as they concern issues and incidents that have a timeless nature. Some evoke empathy with a unique angle and power to pull at the heart. Some dwell on moral gray areas. Other articles concern major issues facing our nation today. The length of the articles and format of the book allow readers to pick up the book at any time, and spend 10 or 15 minutes reading a couple articles to completion. Then they can lay the book aside without feeling they are caught in the middle of something with a need to continue. One reader wrote: "This is writing that focuses on the seemingly simple pleasures, frustrations, quandaries and conflicts in life. But just because it's presented in a simple, accessible, straightforward manner, doesn't mean it doesn't run deep. "I think anyone can relate to the author's reactions and insights which color the vignettes, and upon reflection, they open a door to the complex dynamics that lie beneath. They provide insight and food for thought that keep popping up in your mind, long after you've read what seemed like a simple enough story. Reading them a second time, you realize what a wealth of substance is presented in what you thought was a humble package."
