julio gonzalez ucla transfer: The Oxford Handbook of Governance and Public Management for Social Policy Karen J. Baehler, 2023 Public administration plays an integral role at every stage of social policy creation and execution. Program operators' management decisions shape policymakers' perceptions of what can and should be accomplished through social programs, while public administrators wield considerable power to mobilize tangible and intangible resources and fill gaps in policy designs. Furthermore, the cumulative effects of public administrators' daily activities directly influence outcomes for program participants, and may shift policy itself. Location also matters to social policy, as those same administrators are expected to innovate continuously in response to shifting local and national conditions, including changes in budgetary allocations, client needs and capacities, and public attitudes. This Handbook will aim to capture what is being learned across six geographical regions: Africa, Asia, Australasia, Europe, Latin America, and the U.S. and Canada. Specifically, each regional section will contain 6-10 chapters canvassing a particular set of promising practices or emerging challenges at the regional or sub-regional level, in addition to a brief overview written by the section editor. The regional sections will be flanked by integrative chapters. As a whole, the volume contains 65 chapters.

Bernardo Kordon (1915-2002) a pesar de sobrevivir en los márgenes del canon, se ha convertido con el tiempo en una referencia ineludible del realismo argentino. Por sus novelas y sus cuentos desfilan, a veces como decorado y otras como un paisaje intenso, los agitados y fundacionales años del siglo XX. Desangelados, migrantes, fallidos y desgarrados pueblan sus historias, contadas siempre con un claro compromiso, tanto estético como político. En este ensayo Marcelo Britos sistematiza su obra y lo que se ha escrito sobre ella, para después intentar nuevas miradas y caminos de exploración que interpelan y complejizan las afirmaciones críticas sobre un autor que no termina de agotar su maestría.
