Understanding the Biblical Context of Jesus' Temptation

The temptation of Jesus course begins with a thorough examination of the biblical context in which this event takes place. The story is primarily found in the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke—with each account offering unique insights. Understanding the historical and cultural background of Jesus' time is essential to grasp the full meaning of His temptation.

Historical and Cultural Setting

Jesus' temptation occurred immediately after His baptism, a significant event marking the start of His public ministry. The wilderness setting symbolizes a place of testing and isolation, common in Jewish tradition for spiritual preparation. This course explores how the desert was viewed as both a physical and spiritual battleground where faith and obedience were tested.

Scriptural Accounts and Differences

The course analyzes the differences between the gospel accounts to provide a comprehensive view. For example, Mark's account is brief, while Matthew and Luke provide detailed dialogues between Jesus and Satan. These variations are studied to understand the theological emphases and narrative purposes behind each version.

The Three Temptations Explained

A core component of the temptation of Jesus course is a detailed breakdown of the three specific temptations Jesus faced. Each temptation represents a different type of challenge and illustrates key aspects of human struggle against sin.

Turning Stones into Bread

The first temptation targets Jesus' physical hunger after fasting for 40 days. Satan's challenge to turn stones into bread tests Jesus' reliance on God's provision versus fulfilling immediate physical needs. This section highlights the importance of spiritual nourishment over mere physical satisfaction.

Throwing Himself from the Temple

The second temptation involves Jesus being urged to prove His divine sonship by throwing Himself from the temple's pinnacle. This tests His trust in God's protection and challenges the misuse of scripture for personal gain. The course explains how Jesus' refusal demonstrates faith and respect for God's will.

Worshiping Satan for Earthly Power

The final temptation offers Jesus all the kingdoms of the world in exchange for worshiping Satan. This temptation addresses the desire for power and authority without suffering. The course discusses the implications of Jesus' rejection of worldly power in favor of spiritual obedience.

Theological Significance of the Temptation

This section of the temptation of Jesus course explores the deeper theological meanings behind the narrative. The temptations are not merely historical events but hold profound implications for Christian doctrine and understanding of Jesus' mission.

Jesus as the New Adam

The course discusses the concept of Jesus as the New Adam who succeeds where the first Adam failed. By resisting temptation, Jesus restores humanity's relationship with God and models obedience, highlighting the redemptive nature of His mission.

Faith, Obedience, and the Role of Scripture

Jesus' responses to Satan are all rooted in scripture, emphasizing the authority of God's word in spiritual warfare. This section underscores how faith and obedience to God's commands are central themes in overcoming temptation.

Spiritual Warfare and Human Experience

The course also examines the temptation narrative as an illustration of spiritual warfare, where believers face trials that test their faith. It encourages understanding temptation as a universal human experience and a call to spiritual vigilance.

Practical Applications for Modern Believers temptation of jesus course: James R. Kent Hughes, 1991-07 Too often Christmas gets swallowed up in the busyness of shopping and sending cards and wrapping presents. As we rush around, we often miss the wonder of what Christmas is all about. Christmas began with a gift given to the human race two thousand years ago. It was a child, born in a Bethlehem stable and laid in a manger. His birth was announced by wise men guided from the East by a very special star. It was the gift we needed most: a Savior, the Holy Son of God. This is the good news proclaimed by the angel: Fear not; for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord (Luke 2:10-11). Why was God's gift of a Savior so important? There are three reasons: The greatness of the need. The future of the human race was at stake. Sin made havoc of God's creation and brought estrangement from its Creator. The greatness of the gift. Not only was the need great, but the gift was also great! This is My beloved Son, God said, in whom I am well pleased (Matthew 3:17). The greatness of the cost. Read the inspired portraits of the suffering of Christ in Isaiah 53, Psalm 22, and Psalm 69. The cross was only part of the price He gladly paid. Jesus Christ did not die for His own sins or because He was a victim of circumstances. He came, as God's supreme gift to you and me. The Bible pointedly asks: How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? (Hebrews 2:3). Have you overlooked the really important gift of Christmas? Is God prompting you to look through the odds and ends of Christmas? God's gift for you is waiting. Don't miss it. Right now, wherever you are, you can receive the costliest gift, Jesus Christ the Savior. For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life (John 3:16).

temptation of jesus course: Life By Death Ron Hordyk, 2016-01-21 I tell you the truth, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds. The man who loves his life will lose it, while the man who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. John 12:24-25 When God created mankind, they were innocent, predisposed to neither good nor evil. By creating the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, God presented mankind with a choice to either live for Him or rebel against Him. However, mankind did not perceive that they could choose until Satan taught Eve the concept of evil. God gave Adam and Eve only one command: Do not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. But Adam and Eve disobeyed God. On that day, man's spirit died; the power of sin entered the world; the sinful nature sprang into existence; and mankind was banished into Satan's kingdom. This day was the darkest day in human history. In the Old Testament, God promised mankind a new covenant. This new covenant has given mankind a second opportunity to choose to live for God. If a person will obey God, then God will forgive his sins, give him a new spirit and a new heart, and place within him His Holy Spirit. Because mankind lost their innocence, they need to die to the seven areas of sinful control to become Christians. Hence, they must crucify their I with Christ: dying to the law, to the basic principles of this world, to the power of sin, to their sinful nature, to their soul's self-centeredness, and to the world. Many Christians are not aware that they must die to live the new life in Christ. Life By Death examines why man is spiritually dead, how Christians die to the seven areas of sinful control, and what Christians experience in Christ. Keywords: Holiness, Victory, Brokenness, Wholeness, Hope, Healing, Rebirth, Surrender, Born-Again, And Sinful-Nature.
